Hi Peter,

Thank you for your letter (dated 31st Jan, 2006) received today, in response to mine of 11th Dec, 2005.

I largely agree with your comments about the confusion and pain Peter Lineham expressed in the article I forwarded to you. I am highly disturbed by the article.

However I confess to now being just as concerned by what I consider to be the most impolite way I have been fobbed of by four leading evangelical organizations when I wrote a very serious letter to each of them regarding Peter being a member of their board. I think the lack of substantive response to my letter is nothing short of appalling.

As far as I am aware Peter is still on the board of BCNZ. Am I correct?

If so, the request of my original letter still stands. I said:

'I accordingly request the Board to explain why it has retained Peter subsequent to his having publicly identified himself with a detestable, abominable perversion, which is contrary to the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ that the Board is charged with upholding, and contrary to both God's moral and biological order.'

Yours Sincerely
